More than Plain Chocolate

SNICKERS® is more than plain chocolate, and for all the right reasons. It brings several distinct tastes and textures together in one bar. Milk chocolate, caramel, peanuts, and nougat each contribute something different, creating a combination that's sweet, creamy, and delicious at every bite.

Milk Chocolate and Caramel

The signature combination of milk chocolate and caramel is what makes the SNICKERS® bars so iconic and irresistible. The chocolate coating brings a familiar taste and caramel complements it by adding a soft and chewy texture. Together, they create a delicious contrast between the chocolate coating and the caramel inside.

Peanuts and Nougat

While the chocolate coating gives SNICKERS® its signature look, the peanuts and nougat are the real stars, bringing their own distinctive taste and experience. Together, they contrast with the smoothness of the milk chocolate and chewy caramel to create multiple textures in one bite. So next time, if anyone asks you to recommend a chocolate bar with caramel and peanuts, you know what the best choice is!
